Where locals go to find businesses they trust.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Our Local Business Directories are a trusted, easy-to-use guide which connects readers with local businesses and services they rely on every day.

Appeal to a key market!

Seniors are more likely to use a newspaper to find trades because it feels safer and more credible than online searches. Seeing a local plumber, electrician, or handyman advertised in a community paper signals that the business is established, accountable, and nearby — key factors when allowing someone into their home.

Three overlapping images of the Local News Group Business Directory pages, showing various advertisements for local businesses and services.
